

Welcome to Corning and home to Market Down Davis!

Market Down Davis is an event that happens in conjunction with our Community's Lazy Days Festival and our Battle of the BBQ contest. All of this happens our large expansive multi-block historic commercial Main Street District! Corning's Main Street District has vast historical buildings that are buzzing with a wide array of retails shops, restaurants, entertainment, arts along with various businesses!

ABOUT MARKET DOWN DAVIS

HANDMADE MARKET – VINTAGE CURATORS– FARMERS MARKET

Our vision of Market Down Davis is to provide our festival goers with a unique fusion experience. Highlighting rural handmade and vintage artisans and local businesses along our main street by creating a retail experience where they can walk around and shop small local business on main street but also from handmade artisans, vintage curators and our local produce and flower producers. Corning has always been very supportive of small business and artisans and we couldn't think of a more appropriate market to showcase all those aspects. Rural Iowa isn't just agriculture and we want to showcase how strongly rural Southwest Iowa is invested in supporting artisans and small businesses.

ABOUT OUR FESTIVAL

For our Lazy Days Festival weekend, we have events that start Friday events & go all day on Saturday! Friday night is our People Choice Wings contest, along with a street dance from Bad Influence. Saturday morning we start with our 5K & 10K Doctors Dash at 7am, following by our Pancake feed and the opening of Market Down Davis at 9am. At 11am there will kid's games in the park, along with a block long area of Inflatables for our younger event goers. A farmers market in our Central Park Pavilion. At noon is the Community BBQ and awards from the Battle of the BBQ contest! This event brings in people from all out Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska & Kansas! With attendance at over 1000+ throughout the day with so many things to do! Plan on coming and spending the day located centrally up and down our Historic Main Street District!
